

K-LOVE is the only radio station I listen to. For both entertainment and information, the commercial free style is unbeatable! This radio station lifts my spirits as it keeps me informed about the state, regional and world wide news. There is not other radio station like this that I have available to me. Reaching people with the hope and word of God while providing general information and entertainment is vital to the lifestyle I have and is a huge benefit to all who listen.